Proxy Vote Rules

1. A voting member (practicing member) who is unable to attend the annual or a special meeting may appoint, as their proxy for casting a vote, another individual who is a voting member.
2. Proxies may vote on all matters presented at the meeting.
3. No appointed proxy shall act for more than one absent member.
4. The individual so appointed shall be entitled to vote as proxy only if the written appointment as proxy, signed by the individual making the appointment, is received by the SCOT administrative assistant (admin@scotsk.ca) prior to the commencement of the meeting.
5. A proxy may be for one specific meeting only. Open, undated, or continuing proxies are not permitted.
